

How to Organize your Music Collection using Creative Media Toolbox 6 (Activated Version)

Keywords / Key Phrases: organize music, media toolbox 6, auto-tag music, edit music tag, how to organize music in media toolbox

The Organizer feature in Creative Media Toolbox 6 is being used to organize your music collection by amending its iD3 tag or song information.

1. Launch the Creative Media Toolbox 6 and click Organize.

Click to enlarge

2. There will be several options now:

- Edit Music Tags
- Organize Music
- Auto-Tag Music

3. Edit Music Tags: You can edit song details such as its title, artist and so on. When you are done, click Next.

Click to enlarge

4. Organize Music: Here you have option to either rename your music files or organized them according to their music tags.

Click to enlarge

5. Auto-Tag Music: This option will attempt to fill the details of your music file using the Gracenote Server. It hosts a collection of information to various songs entered by users themselves. If Gracenote is unable find the album information, it will inform you of the following message:

This tool is unable to retrieve tag information from Gracenote(®) at the moment.

Click to enlarge

Click to enlarge

Last updated: September 08, 2011